

Shooting Info, Mapping, Review, and Goal Setting

- I. Data Discussion
  - a. Assess data sources (ex: data quality and limitations)
  - b. Important for shift framework, assessment, understanding, solutions, outcomes
  - c. Data Points
    - i. Injury data: home/incident geography, demographics, date, clusters
    - ii. Overall community health assessment
    - iii. Impact/outcome assessment
  - d. Data sources
    - i. Health department data
    - ii. Trauma hospitals
    - iii. Medical examiner/coroner's office
    - iv. Local universities, schools of Public Health
    - v. Violent incident data sources: crime, health and community data
- II. Crime Data
  - a. Detail information
    - i. Frames violent incidents in terms crimes punishable by law
    - ii. Details of event documented primarily to investigate and hold offenders accountable
    - iii. Subjectivity inherent
  - b. Data sources
    - i. Direct contacts in law enforcement
    - ii. Law enforcement sponsored websites
    - iii. Media (ex: Chicago's "Red Eye")
- III. Health Data
  - a. Detail of information
    - i. Frames violent incident in terms of injury to the body
    - ii. Details of event documented to primarily preserve and understand individual health
    - iii. Different subjectivity inherent
  - b. Data sources
    - i. Universities, Schools of Public Health
    - ii. Hospitals
    - iii. Health department
- IV. Community Data
  - a. Direct calls from the community
  - b. Information gathered during canvassing
  - c. Observation by staff
  - d. Tracking system

- V. Shooting Information
  - a. Incident data
  - b. Summary data
- VI. Shooting Mapping
  - a. Official maps from the city/state and mapping programs
  - b. Create your own map
  - c. Google maps (look up instructions)
- VII. Violent Incident Review
  - a. See sections A-C
  - b. Review incident after one week, one month, and one quarter in staff meeting
- VIII. Monthly Goal Setting
  - a. Concentrate efforts of staff
  - b. Keep the idea of reducing shootings and killings constantly in the conversation
  - c. Something to work towards
  - d. Must be on every agenda
  - e. Use any form/program that works best